Gasthaus "Dublow-Mühle"

Oldest inn in the Spreewald – license to serve alcohol since 1737

Dear Guests,

We would like to extend a warm welcome to you at our place.

It is said that here in the Spreewald, amidst unspoiled nature, the world is still in order.

The Spreewald is richly blessed with honest, natural, and diverse products.

To make your stay with us as pleasant as possible, the ingredients used in our kitchen come largely from our own farm and butchery. Our livestock still graze on lush meadows.

Our motto is:

Discover, vary, combine – with what nature provides.

Take a deep breath, recharge, and enjoy the magnificent landscape of the Spreewald.

Our regional suppliers:

Vetschau meat and sausage products

Organic farmer Alexander Buchan from Raddusch

Spreewald farmer Rieken from Vetschau

Mietz bakery from Burg

Rabe pickling plant in Boblitz

Linseed oil from Zeidler in Lübbenau

Sellendorf distillery

Arno Ballaschk distillery in Burg

Landskron Brewery in Görlitz

The Bullfrog of the Dubkow Mill

According to legend, a giant bullfrog—weighing six hundredweight—has lived in the cellar of the Dubkow Mill since the 1920s. August Konzaek had placed it on a wooden chain. When late-night guests couldn't find their way home, he would release it. The frog would hop ahead in great leaps, guiding the tipsy revelers with its powerful voice. But if anyone dared to tease the clever creature, they would be led into the mud.

Unfortunately, the frog is currently unavailable to us. Due to its age, the animal has recently been tumbling over frequently during its great leaps, so Ilona Konzaek has temporarily sent it to Texas to be balanced.

At the beginning of the 20th century, many restaurants adopted similar legends—this boosted business. But why a frog weighing six hundredweight? This too is known:

The lock at the Dubkow mill had drop gates until the 1930s.

The counterweights on the gates are called "frogs" and these weighed – hard to believe – exactly 600 kilograms.
